CHALLENGE 4: CREATE SOUND EFFECTS WITH YOUR OWN STORY!

Optional YouTube Video: 100 Kids Tell a Story | 100 Kids | HiHo Kids

To Do: Review your storyboard. Make sure you have a beginning, middle, and end, some characters and settings. Now you will make a ★ to the drawings that you can add sound effects. The more stars the better!

Now, just like Challenge 2, you will gather objects and materials to create sound effects for your story. Be sure you try a few different versions and find one that you think it works the best.

Practice it a few times and gather your family members to watch your final performance! You can have your family to video tapes your performance or/and you can make notes of what objects you use in the below box.
